Laura Schuler aka Kate Birch - Vocals, Synths, Violin, Samples

Facing the world naked, without the emotional burden of patterns which we have outgrown. Moving beyond the ego to embrace unconditional love. These aspirations comprise the heart of Kate Birch's new album The Fool which was released in April 2022 by the label Red Brick Chapel

Laura Schuler plays the violin since many years and made a name for herself in the international jazz - and creative music scene (trio Esche and her quartet amongst others). Through the alter ego Kate Birch she develops her language further in the direction of Artpop and Indietronica. During a longer stay in New York the project got its spirit and initial push. In the city she started the process of songwriting and studio production. She still returns to New York on a regular base to play and to fill up her mind and heart with experiences of the metropole live, which flow back into her music.
