The music of the duo Štefan Szabó and Jakub Švejnar is created by two musicians from the young generations of composers and improvisors from Czech Republic and Slovakia. The music is created by two distinctive musical personalities thus moves between musical spaces such as post-jazz, minimalism, grunge and free improvisation. At their residency in Poschiavo they will be working on a material for their debut album curated by the Czech label for improvised and experimental music: Ma records.

Czech journalist for jazzport.cz describes their music by a following quote: Švejnar is a weird improviser, Szabó is an uncompromising seeker; they inspire each other, their improvisation is unpredictable, here you are swept away by noise, then a Nordic contemplative ambient sound painting, rock intensity, gurgling blues. Nutritious food!
